

D. The Northampton Borough Police department has policies that promote racism, which violates statutes under the Pennsylvania constitution Article 1. subsection 1. The department has supervised the two defendants, the department as a whole has failed to implement policies and guidelines which would have prevented the two officers from racially profiling the plaintiff. The department also failed to hold these officers accountable for their actions which violated the plaintiff's constitutional rights.

D. Officer Dennis Smith being duly sworn under Pennsylvania law committed the acts of ethnic intimidation, title 18 2710, strangulation, title 18 2718, aggravated assault, title 18 2702, simple assault, title 18 2701 while attempting to apprehend Plaintiff Jonathan Rosado. By doing this officer Smith used excessive force on the plaintiff, thus violating the plaintiff's constitutional rights.

D. Officer Matthew Bennicoff being duly sworn under Pennsylvania law committed the acts of ethnic intimidation, title 18 2710, aggravated assault, title 18 2702, simple assault, title 18 2701 while attempting to apprehend plaintiff Jonathan Rosado. By doing this Bennicoff used excessive force on the plaintiff, thus violating the plaintiff's constitutional rights.

D. While attempting to apprehend plaintiff Jonathan Rosado officer Bennicoff excessively tasered plaintiff while he was facedown on the ground. Officer Smith arrived to the scene and also deployed his taser excessively, before locking the plaintiff's legs and putting him in an illegal choke hold. At this time officer Bennicoff struck the plaintiff numerous times in the head and face and proceeded to kick the plaintiff in the forehead.

II. Basis for Jurisdiction

Under 42 U.S.C. § 1983, you may sue state or local officials for the "deprivation of any rights, privileges, or immunities secured by the Constitution and [federal laws]." Under Bivens v. Six Unknown Named Agents of Federal Bureau of Narcotics, 403 U.S. 388 (1971), you may sue federal officials for the violation of certain constitutional rights.

A. Are you bringing suit against (check all that apply):

☐ Federal officials (a Bivens claim)☒ State or local officials (a § 1983 claim)

B. Section 1983 allows claims alleging the "deprivation of any rights, privileges, or immunities secured by the Constitution and [federal laws]." 42 U.S.C. § 1983. If you are suing under section 1983, what federal constitutional or statutory right(s) do you claim is/are being violated by state or local officials?

4th 8th and 14th

C. Plaintiffs suing under Bivens may only recover for the violation of certain constitutional rights. If you are suing under Bivens, what constitutional right(s) do you claim is/are being violated by federal officials?

- D. Section 1983 allows defendants to be found liable only when they have acted "under color of any statute, ordinance, regulation, custom, or usage, of any State or Territory or the District of Columbia." 42 U.S.C. § 1983. If you are suing under section 1983, explain how each defendant acted under color of state or local law. If you are suing under Bivens, explain how each defendant acted under color of federal law. Attach additional pages if needed.

III. Prisoner Status

Indicate whether you are a prisoner or other confined person as follows (check all that apply):

- ☒ Pretrial detainee
- ☐ Civilly committed detainee
- ☐ Immigration detainee
- ☐ Convicted and sentenced state prisoner
- ☐ Convicted and sentenced federal prisoner
- ☐ Other (explain) _____

IV. Statement of Claim

State as briefly as possible the facts of your case. Describe how each defendant was personally involved in the alleged wrongful action, along with the dates and locations of all relevant events. You may wish to include further details such as the names of other persons involved in the events giving rise to your claims. Do not cite any cases or statutes. If more than one claim is asserted, number each claim and write a short and plain statement of each claim in a separate paragraph. Attach additional pages if needed.

- A. If the events giving rise to your claim arose outside an institution, describe where and when they arose.

In the Borough of Northampton on the 1100 Block of Dewey Avenue.

- B. If the events giving rise to your claim arose in an institution, describe where and when they arose.

- C. What date and approximate time did the events giving rise to your claim(s) occur?

On August 15th 2020 at 0040 hours

- D. What are the facts underlying your claim(s)? (For example: What happened to you? Who did what? Was anyone else involved? Who else saw what happened?)

see Attached

V. Injuries

If you sustained injuries related to the events alleged above, describe your injuries and state what medical treatment, if any, you required and did or did not receive.

Permanent disfigurement to left middle finger
Nerve damage in left hand and wrist.
Severe trauma to head and face area.

VI. Relief

State briefly what you want the court to do for you. Make no legal arguments. Do not cite any cases or statutes. If requesting money damages, include the amounts of any actual damages and/or punitive damages claimed for the acts alleged. Explain the basis for these claims.

Damages in the amount of $100,000, defendant was making on average $20,000 a year, compensation is projected over a 20 year period. Open claim for all medical costs including any needed therapy for mental health needs caused by emotional trauma.

VII. Exhaustion of Administrative Remedies Administrative Procedures

The Prison Litigation Reform Act ("PLRA"), 42 U.S.C. § 1997e(a), requires that "[n]o action shall be brought with respect to prison conditions under section 1983 of this title, or any other Federal law, by a prisoner confined in any jail, prison, or other correctional facility until such administrative remedies as are available are exhausted."

Administrative remedies are also known as grievance procedures. Your case may be dismissed if you have not exhausted your administrative remedies.

3. What was the result, if any?

4. What steps, if any, did you take to appeal that decision? Is the grievance process completed? If not, explain why not. (Describe all efforts to appeal to the highest level of the grievance process.)

F. If you did not file a grievance:

1. If there are any reasons why you did not file a grievance, state them here:

incident occurred outside of jail.
Grievance does not cover claim.

2. If you did not file a grievance but you did inform officials of your claim, state who you informed, when and how, and their response, if any:

When I arrived to the Northampton County Jail I was seen by and treated for open cuts and wounds by a medical nurse. I was also called to the lieutenant's office and pictures were taken of my face.

- G. Please set forth any additional information that is relevant to the exhaustion of your administrative remedies. I have not received full discovery in my case. I have a possible witness to the events that occurred. I also have one more possible defendant. At this time both identities are unknown pending receipt and inspection of discovery.

(Note: You may attach as exhibits to this complaint any documents related to the exhaustion of your administrative remedies.)

VIII. Previous Lawsuits

The "three strikes rule" bars a prisoner from bringing a civil action or an appeal in federal court without paying the filing fee if that prisoner has "on three or more prior occasions, while incarcerated or detained in any facility, brought an action or appeal in a court of the United States that was dismissed on the grounds that it is frivolous, malicious, or fails to state a claim upon which relief may be granted, unless the prisoner is under imminent danger of serious physical injury." 28 U.S.C. § 1915(g).

To the best of your knowledge, have you had a case dismissed based on this "three strikes rule"?

☐ Yes
☒ No

If yes, state which court dismissed your case, when this occurred, and attach a copy of the order if possible.

- A. Have you filed other lawsuits in state or federal court dealing with the same facts involved in this action?
